

Let's meet in Wrocław!

1 day

If you have one day to see Wrocław, be sure to visit:

in the morning

Market Square with the City Hall and the surrounding sites: Plac Solny (Salt Square), Jaś and Małgosia ("Hansel and Gretel") tenements, St. Elizabeth's Church and Jatki (Butcher's Stalls), University with Aula Leopoldina, Oratorium Marianum and the Mathematical Tower (viewpoint), Monuments and relics of Ostrów Tumski, Raclawice Panorama.

in the afternoon

Directly from the downtown, take a historic tram or a boat to go to the nearby zoo (plan your visit for the next day), visit the Centennial Hall with the Discovery Centre, the Four Domes Pavilion and then relax in the Szczytnicki Park with the Japanese Garden.

in the evening

Choose from going to a concert at the National Forum of Music, an opera or a play in one of many theatres.

2 days

If you have two days to see Wrocław, be sure to visit all sites from the one-day route, and then:

in the morning

Visit the "1000 years of Wrocław" exhibition in the Royal Palace. Walk down the Promenada Staromiejska (Old Town Promenade), passing by the District of Four Denominations don't miss the representative buildings surrounding the Plac Wolności (Freedom Square) and Ogród Staromiejski (Old Town Garden).

in the afternoon

Explore the Africarium part of the zoo garden.

in the evening

Enjoy the multimedia fountain show after dark.

3 days

If you have three days to see Wrocław, be sure to visit all sites from the one-day and two-day routes, and then:

in the morning

Visit one of the greatest museums of Wrocław – the Museum of Architecture and Museum of Post and Telecommunications, being the only of their kind in Poland, the National Museum, any of the City Museum's branches or the Contemporary Museum.

The other option is visiting the Botanical Garden and the Museum of Natural History, or taking a walk through the Nadodrze and Ołbina districts, developed with buildings from the turn of 19th and 20th century and full of atmospheric eateries.

in the afternoon

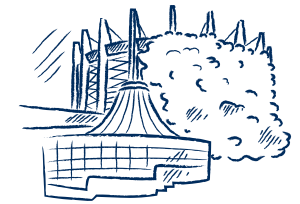

Don't miss the observation point in the Sky Tower, or any other viewpoint.

in the evening

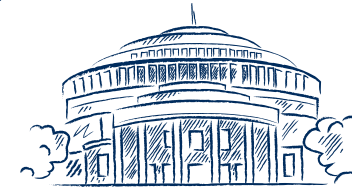

Return to the Ostrów Tumski to see a lamplighter lighting up the gas lamps or choose to relax in the Wrocław water park – the largest Polish spa and wellness centre.

City Hall

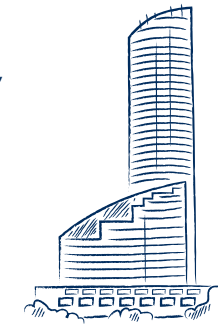

Panorama of Raclawice

Centennial Hall

Japanese Garden

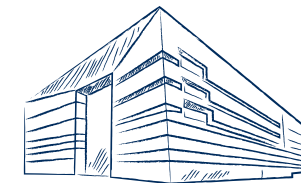

Sky Tower

Zoological Garden and Africarium

The District of Four Denominations

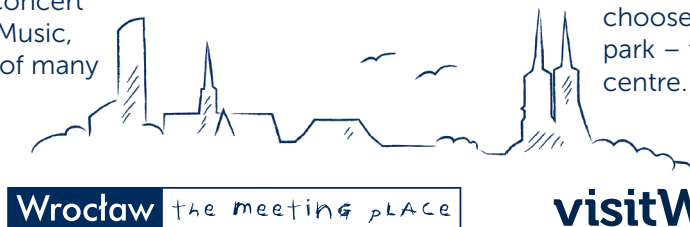

National Forum of Music

Opera House

A must-see for your children is: Tram Depot – a place displaying the latest history of Wrocław in gripping way, Hydropolis – an exhibition dedicated to water and water structures and Kolejkowo – the largest Polish railway model.

At each route, don't forget to keep your eye out on the Wrocław dwarfs!
